WELCOME TO BEAULIEU

“There are over eight hundred years of history to be seen on the Beaulieu Estate, in the heart of the New Forest National Park, which has been in my family’s ownership since 1538. Visitors have been exploring the medieval abbey ruins since 1912 and in 1952 my father opened our family home Palace House to visitors, making it one of the first stately homes to be opened to the public.

In 1956 he added a motor museum in the grounds as a memorial to my grandfather, a leading pioneer motorist. The car collection, which started as a small display in the front hall of Palace House, is now the National Motor Museum with over 250 historic and modern vehicles. Since my father’s death in 2015, we have opened more areas of the house, including his study and a fully restored Victorian Kitchen. Beaulieu counts itself as one of Britain’s leading visitor attractions and I hope you enjoy your visit.”

WELCOME TO BUCKLER'S HARD

“Situated just three miles from Beaulieu on the banks of the Beaulieu River, Buckler’s Hard lies within the Beaulieu Estate. It was originally planned as a sugar port in the 1720s but flourished as a naval shipbuilding centre, providing ships for Nelson’s victory at Trafalgar.

After 100 years as a shipyard, the village became a sleepy backwater until its charms were discovered by Edwardian tourists. Despite the interruption of two World Wars, in which the river played its part, tourism gave Buckler’s Hard a new lease of life.

Today a popular visitor attraction, the Maritime Museum & Buckler’s Hard Story tell the history of the village from its earliest days to the present time. I hope you enjoy your visit here.”

Montagu of Beaulieu

“We really appreciated the warm welcome and helpful presence of everyone we met. A special thank you to Pam for an excellent guided tour which was so friendly and informative....and also the boat crew who rounded off a delightful day with an enjoyable river cruise”
