

NATIONAL MOTOR MUSEUM

GARAGE QUIZ

Number 2

This week's questions have been collated using information from the National Motor Museum's Reference Library. How many do you know? The answers will be posted on our Facebook page after the weekend. Good luck!

1. 2020 marks the 70th anniversary of the Formula One World Championship. Who was the first World Champion?
2. 2020 is also the 50th anniversary of the introduction of the Range Rover. What name was used on the prototype Range Rovers to keep their true identity secret before the launch?
3. Which specialist manufacturer ended up in a legal battle with the Ford Motor Company over the use of the Sierra name during the early 1980s?
4. What name was used for the secret 1940s project to develop the small car that would eventually be launched as the Morris Minor in 1948?
5. MG is a famous marque. What does MG actually stand for?
6. What was the first British production car with front disc brakes?
7. On what date did the wearing of front seat belts, for occupants of all cars built after 1964, become compulsory in the UK?
8. The voices of which Formula One World Champions made cameo appearances in the 2006 Pixar movie Cars?
9. In what year was the Drivers World Championship for rallying first awarded?
10. The World War Two Jeep was officially called either the Willys MB or Ford GPW depending on which manufacturer built them. Which company actually came up with the original design?

Beaulieu